TERMS AND CONDITIONS

- Only successful applicants for an award will be notified of the decision of the Awards Panel.
- The bursary and scholarship awards are not open to employees or sub-contractors of CTA. Any friendship or professional relationship between an applicant and an employee or sub-contractor of CTA must be declared in order to manage any conflict of interest.
- The award may not be transferred to another person and no cash alternative is available.
- The award is made to a student in relationship to a provisional offer made for entry to a specific cohort. Any award may not be transferred by a successful candidate to another cohort. In the event of a student not being able to take up a place on the cohort to which they had applied, the application will be deemed void and any further application will need to be made afresh.
- Any bursary or scholarship student who is deemed to be in breach of CTA's code of conduct or that of the British Acupuncture Council, or who withdraws from study without a valid reason accepted by CTA, shall be liable to repay the full value of the bursary or scholarship.
- CTA reserves the right to use any photographs associated with a scholarship or bursary student's graduation, their biographical sketch (as above) or their statement of intent (as above) or digital photograph (included within this application) for marketing and promotional purposes.
- CTA reserves the right to amend these terms and conditions at any time, and applying implies acceptance of these conditions.
- CTA's Awards Panel's decision is final and no correspondence will be entered into.

DECLARATION

I agree to the College of Traditional Acupuncture processing the personal information contained in this form, and other information which the College may obtain from me for any purposes connected with my application.

I agree to the terms and conditions as stated above.

To the best of my knowledge, the information on this application form is accurate and complete. (Please note that CTA reserves the right to refuse admission or to terminate a student's attending or to immediately cease award payments and seek recovery of any payments made should it be discovered that s/he has made a false statement or has omitted significant information).
